McKechnie Library Trust SC012759
Trustees Annual Report
For the Year Ended 31 March 2015

Charity's principal address:-

South Ayrshire Council
County Buildings
Wellington Square
Ayr KA7 1DR

Names of Trustees:-

John McDowall
Alec Oattes
Alec Clark

Founding Document:-

Disposition and Settlement by Thomas McKechnie dated 7th May 1886

Trustee recruitment and appointment:-

In terms of the founding deed, the trustees are "the Chief Magistrate of Girvan along with the factor of Bargany Estate. The present trustees are deemed to be the three Girvan Councillors.

Charitable purposes:-

The founding and operation of a library and reading rooms in Dalrymple Street, Girvan. These aims were superseded by the establishment of a Local Authority public library and the McKechnie Institute building owned by the trust is now utilised as a local museum and exhibition centre.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period:-

The McKechnie Institute in Dalrymple Street, Girvan, owned by the trust, is subject to a long lease to South Ayrshire Council which expired on 27th February 2015. Although the lease has expired it is subject to tacit relocation. The lease is for £10 per annum if asked however it is not requested. The trust made no disbursements during the period. The McKechnie Institute is a Heritage asset and it is the Trustees opinion, that it is not practicable to obtain a valuation at a cost commensurate with the benefits to users of the financial statements and that reliable cost or valuation information cannot be obtained, therefore the asset shall not be recognised on the balance sheet.

Policy on Reserves:-

The nominal trust income is applied towards the McKechnie Institute on matters not covered by the fully maintaining lease to South Ayrshire Council.

The unrestricted free reserves at the financial year-end were £5,139.48 (£5,833.64 2013-14).

There is a deficit for the year of £694.16. The expenditure is greater than the income as the costs of running the trust are greater than the investment income being generated due to interest rates being so low in the current financial climate. The Trust has no explicit reserves policy but the "capital" of the fund (as identified from the governing documents or available evidence) is held effectively as a permanent endowment. The unrestricted reserves are available for the objects of the trust.

The reserves are held in South Ayrshire Council Loans Fund and 3.5% War Stock.

Independent auditor's report to the trustees of the McKechnie Library Trust and the Accounts Commission for Scotland

I certify that I have audited the financial statements of the McKechnie Library Trust for the year ended 31 March 2015 under Part VII of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 and section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005. The financial statements comprise the receipts and payments account, statement of balances and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is a receipts and payments basis.

This report is made solely to the parties to whom it is addressed in accordance with Part VII of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 and for no other purpose. In accordance with paragraph 125 of the Code of Audit Practice approved by the Accounts Commission for Scotland, I do not undertake to have responsibilities to members or officers, in their individual capacities, or to third parties.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and auditor

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements which properly present the receipts and payments of the charity. My responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) as required by the Code of Audit Practice approved by the Accounts Commission for Scotland. Those standards require me to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the financial statements

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts or disclosures in the financial statements sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the trustees; and the overall presentation of the financial statements. In addition, I read all the financial and non-financial information in the Trustees' Annual Report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by me in the course of performing the audit. If I become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies I consider the implications for my report

Opinion on financial statements

In my opinion the financial statements:

- properly present the receipts and payments of the McKechnie Library Trust for the year ended 31 March 2015 and its statement of balances at that date; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, and regulations 9(1),(2) and (3) of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

Opinion on other prescribed matter

In my opinion the information given in the Trustees' Annual Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements.

Matters on which I am required to report by exception

I am required by the Charity Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 to report to you if, in my opinion:

- proper accounting records have not been kept; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records; or
- I have not received all the information and explanations I require for my audit.

I have nothing to report in respect of these matters.
